

ATLANTA HOMES & LIFESTYLES

CALENDAR

#AROUNDATLANTA

April 5 The Ritz-Carlton Buckhead hosts Easter Brunch at The Café. Guests are invited to join the luxury hotel for Easter egg hunts (every hour on the hour), an exotic petting zoo, a magician and visits from the Easter bunny. Brunch will include enhanced selections including caviar, 25 varieties of cheese, hand-rolled sushi, an espresso station and concoctions by The Ritz-Carlton's pastry chef, Dallas Marsteller. Tickets are $109 per person, $55 for children. 10 a.m. - 4 p.m. ritzcarlton.com

April 10 The Atlanta Dogwood Festival is back for its 79th year at Piedmont Park. Featuring more than 260 fine artists, live music, a 5K run, food events, a disc dog competition and more, the annual three-day event is packed with activities for everyone. The festival is free and open to the public, but some events require ticket purchases. Through 4/12. dogwood.org

April 11 Celebrate the start of spring with the Festival on Ponce, an arts and crafts festival set in historic Olmsted Linear Park, designed by renowned landscape architect Frederick Law Olmsted. The event will feature live entertainment, food trucks and more than 125 fine art, folk art and "outsider art" vendors. Through 4/12. festivalonponce.com

April 13 Chef Matthew Basford of Canoe offers guests a sneak peek of his menu for the James Beard Foundation Dinner in New York City. The preview, hosted in Canoe's private dining room, The Paces Room, consists of five courses complete with wine pairings. Guests will enjoy seasonal dishes such as Kingfish sashimi, spring lamb and deconstructed ribeye. Tickets are $200 per person, and reservations are limited. canoeatl.com